ON THE FARM...

Welcome Spring! With piles of snow still lingering everywhere on the farm, spring seems to be somewhere in the distant future. However, recent glimpses of spring have begun to appear in subtle ways on the farm. As Easter approaches, how appropriate it is to celebrate God's creation and new life. One sign we experience each spring is the birth of baby calves. Our first arrivals have been a bull (boy) and a heifer (girl) born this month, with more to arrive in April and continuing through the coming months. Sunshine and longer day hours are welcome sights, especially when milking and evening chores seemed exceptionally long during cold winter evenings in the barn. Chirping birds, sandhill cranes and robins once again bring music to our ears as we step outside to start the morning routine. And of course, "mud season," as we like to call it, has arrived. With a slow thaw all the snow has to go somewhere and we bear with it knowing the end of winter is in sight. We're anxious to get the cattle back on green pastures!

Our newest calf, Integrity.

We wish you Easter blessings and a happy spring!

Pat and Shar Daninger
